Speaker: Kate Obenshain Keeler

Kate Obenshain Keeler is an author, popular national speaker, and a commentator on national television and radio shows. Kate has spent her career championing expanded liberty in America, and impressing upon young people an understanding of the blessings of freedom. Formerly a vice president of Young America's Foundation, and currently a Board Member, she has been speaking on college campuses for 27 years, has appeared on FOX News, CNBC, and MSNBC, has written for numerous publications and been on hundreds of radio shows. Keeler served as chairman of the Virginia GOP from 2003 to 2006, as advisor to former governor George Allen, and as his Senate chief of staff; and as vice chairman of the Virginia State Council for Higher Education. In 2004, she founded the Jennifer Byler Institute, a leadership training program for women in Virginia. Kate is author of the critically acclaimed book, Divider in Chief: The Fraud of Hope and Change
