Speaker: Delegate Nicholas (Nick) J. Freitas
District 30, Virginia House of Delegates

Nick Freitas is a member of the Virginia House of Delegates, representing District 30. He was first elected in November of 2015, with his current term ending in January, 2024. While serving as delegate, Freitas sought the Republican nomination in 2018 for U.S. Senate, but lost the primary. In 2020 Freitas won the Republican nomination to represent Virginia's 7th District in the United States House of Representatives, losing a very close, hard fought race (49% to 51%) to the incumbent Democrat. Before entering politics, Freitas served in the U.S. Army with the 82nd Airborne Division and 25th Light Infantry Division as an Infantryman. After September 11th Nick volunteered for US Army Special Forces (Green Berets) and eventually served 2 tours in Iraq as a Special Forces Weapons SGT and Special Forces Intelligence SGT. Even during that time Nick actively worked on behalf of conservative principles and the Republican Party by writing and advocating for Republican candidates. Freitas holds a Bachelor of Arts from Henley-Putnam University. He is married to his high-school sweetheart, Tina. They have 3 children.
