Our Speaker: Flint Engleman

Policy and Education Director, Americans for Prosperity (AFP)

Flint Engleman is a National Policy and Education Director for Americans for Prosperity (AFP), serving as Virginia's Skyline Region Director. Recently, Flint received AFP's National Regional Director of the Year Award. Now in his tenth year with AFP, Flint has trained hundreds of activists from all over Virginia and has been at the forefront of improving freedom-based policy for the Commonwealth. Most notably for free market victories for health care as well as the Red Tape Reduction Act passed by the General Assembly. Flint has over 30 years of grassroots leadership experience and serves as the State Strategic Education Coordinator for AFP's Grassroots Leadership Academy. Currently, he is working with AFP/Virginia on their largest grassroots effort to date to bring change to Virginia by winning a policy majority in the House and Senate in the November 2023 election. Flint is also host of the syndicated radio show, "The American Maverick Show," on Red State Talk Radio Network, and has over 20 years of experience in banking and finance as a Bank Officer with Bank of America and SunTrust. A Magna Cum Laude graduate of Davis & Elkins College with a BS in Management & Health Care Administration, Flint resides in Ruckersville, Virginia with his wife, Catherine.
