MAKE AMERICA SECURE AGAIN

"Israel, Gaza, and U.S. National Security Priorities in 2025"

Speaker: Daniel R. Moy

Colonel Dan Moy is a 27-year veteran of the U.S. Air Force and a lecturer at the University of Virginia where he teaches courses on terrorism and counterterrorism and decision making in crises in the Frank Batten School of Leadership and Public Policy. In the first half of his military career, Dan logged over 4,000 hours in reconnaissance and surveillance aircraft, leading combat support missions in the Middle East and in response to the 9/11 terrorist attacks. He was assigned to the Pentagon in 2005 where he served as deputy assistant to the Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. From 2008-2009, Colonel Moy deployed to Afghanistan with the Army's 101st Airborne Division where he commanded a counterinsurgency team of over 100 personnel, implementing innovative strategies for combating terrorism in hostile environments. Upon his return from Afghanistan, Colonel Moy was assigned as Deputy Military Advisor to the U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations. He returned to the Pentagon in 2012 where he directed intelligence acquisition programs and briefed members of the House and Senate Armed Services Committees on critical Air Force requirements. Colonel Moy retired from the Air Force in 2016 and is a recipient of the Legion of Merit, the Defense Superior Service Medal, and the Bronze Star.
